

Module 1 Getting going with careers information

QCGD mapping

Completing Module 1 will support you to meet the following outcomes of the Qualification in Career Guidance and Development.

5a What is meant by career related information
5c The range, source and types of information which are, or should be, available to clients and their relative merits
5f How to assist clients to access, interpret and utilise career related information using a variety of media